On Monday, June 23, 2003, the Public Policy Institute of California (PPIC) will host a luncheon briefing in Room B-338 of the Rayburn House Office Building to examine the public policy and private sector ramifications of the increasing globalization of California's vast economy.

The exchange will be led by:

- Jon D. Haveman, research fellow at the Public Policy Institute of California and former senior international economist at the President's Council of Economic Advisers. Haveman is the author of a newly-released PPIC report, Foreign Tariff Reductions and California Exports.
- Howard J. Shatz, research fellow at the Public Policy Institute of California and the author of a newly-released PPIC report, Business Without Borders? The Globalization of the California Economy.

Copies of their reports will be available at the luncheon session.

If you plan to attend, please reply (acceptances only, thank you) to randsell@calinst.org , fax to 202-546-2390, or call 202-546-3700.
