

THE CALIFORNIA SCHOOL BOARDS ASSOCIATION AND THE CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE FOR FEDERAL POLICY RESEARCH invite you to attend a

Briefing Regarding Federal Education Issues

NOTE ROOM CHANGE →

Friday, January 30, 2004
2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.
2175 Rayburn House Office Building

You are invited to attend a briefing regarding federal education policy issues, which will be held on Friday, January 30, 2004, from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m., in Room 2175 of the Rayburn House Office Building.

The briefing will feature comments by representatives of the California School Boards Association (CSBA), who will present information regarding:

- the California state budget
- the implementation of the No Child Left Behind Act (NCLB)
- reauthorization of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)
- reauthorizations of Head Start, Perkins Act, and the National School Lunch Act

In addition, the presenters will be available to discuss other California issues, including the state's school accountability system.

For further information, or to contact the presenters in advance, feel free to visit the CSBA website at <http://www.csba.org> or contact either Rick Pratt or Phil Escamilla at 916-325-4020.

No reply is necessary to attend the briefing. Our thanks to the office of Rep. Buck McKeon for assistance securing the room for the event. To contact the California Institute, visit <http://www.calinst.org> or call 202-546-3700.

Thank you, and we look forward to seeing you Friday afternoon.